

“Secure Mounting Solutions”

Model 1062-00

The model 1062 Access Point/Equipment Enclosure permits the Wireless LAN Access Point or other equipment to be secured in an aesthetic, locking, wall mounted steel enclosure. Antenna ports designed for use with many of the most popular access points provide a convenient way to provide effective RF coverage.

Specifications:

- Designed for surface mounting on indoor hard walls, where secure mounting is required
- Construction: 18 gauge steel back box and 16 gauge steel door
- Hinged locking door is standard
- Size: 24" x 24" x 4" deep 3½" useful depth with universal mounting plate in place
- Weight: 24lbs

Model 1062-00 Includes:

- Two (2) Universal Mounting Plates, individually moveable to any of 9 different positions within the enclosure
- Mounting Screws & Hardware
- Installation Instructions
- Two (2) removable antenna slot covers on top permit mounting of two (2) Cisco 802.11a "paddle" antennas
- Four (4) removable hold covers on bottom for use with most manufacturers antennas
- Two (2) knockouts for ¾" (trade) clamp connector in the enclosure
- Clamp Connectors
- Wall anchors and bolts